

FWAFA Summer of '08 Suggested Drama List

Every high school student is required to watch and take notes on at least one play. This play does NOT have to be a live performance; a video will be sufficient. However, a live performance, with an attached program, will be very impressive. Almost any play/musical will do. Watch something that you haven't seen before. The goal is to broaden your experiences. This is an incomplete list of possibilities:

Thoroughly Modern Millie

A Streetcar Named Desire

A Doll's House

The Glass Menagerie

Doctor Faustus

Death of a Salesman

Cat on a Hot Tin Roof

Our Town

Little Shop of Horrors

The Importance of Being Earnest

Our Town

Oedipus—any of Sophocles' trilogy

Shakespeare: any of the comedies

King Lear, any of the histories or tragedies we do NOT read in class.

There are many, many more. Remember that every movie is not a play just because it is produced from a screenplay. Your goal should be to expand your literary horizons. You WILL fill out a summer reading report on the play and will be asked to write on it in class.
